What is Model United Nations (MUN)?

Model United Nations is an educational simulation that replicates the United Nations system. Participants, known as delegates, represent different countries and engage in debates and negotiations on global issues, following UN procedures.

02

How does MUN work?

MUN conferences typically consist of committees that focus on specific topics. Delegates research their assigned country's position, write position papers, and participate in committee sessions to discuss and draft resolutions. The goal is to find diplomatic solutions to global challenges

03

Who can participate in SNSMUN?

SNSMUN is open to students of Grade 7 to Grade 12. Anyone with an interest in international relations, diplomacy, and global issues can participate.

04

How are committees and topics assigned?

Committee and topic assignments are generally made by the SNSMUN conference organizers. They consider delegate preferences, experience, and balance between countries to ensure diverse participation.

05

How do I prepare for SNSMUN conference?

Preparing for SNSMUN conference involves researching your country, understanding the assigned topic, writing a position paper, practicing public speaking, and familiarizing yourself with UN procedures and rules of conduct. Remember the RoP being followed for SNSMUN is UN4MUN. Prepared to be very debate oriented!

06

What is the dress code for MUN conferences?

MUN conferences typically follow formal or business attire. Delegates are expected to dress professionally, wearing suits or traditional attire that represents their country. Day 1 will have western clothing followed by the Socials. Day 2 will have Ethnic clothing.
